

TELECOMMUNICATIONS AUTHORITY OF TRINIDAD AND TOBAGO

EXPRESSIONS OF INTEREST FOR
'FREE TO AIR' TELEVISION BROADCASTING SERVICES

The Telecommunications Authority of Trinidad and Tobago is currently undertaking a study to examine the opportunity of opening the 'free to air' television broadcasting services sector to further competition as part of its continuing effort to develop the broadcasting sector in Trinidad and Tobago.

Towards this end, 'Expressions of Interest' are hereby invited from parties interested in providing 'FREE TO AIR' TELEVISION BROADCASTING SERVICES under the following concession classifications:

- National
- Major Territorial (Trinidad only)
- Minor Territorial (Tobago only)

Interested parties should note that 'Expressions of Interest' submitted should include, at a minimum:

- Company information (date of incorporation, list of directors etc)
- Details of experience in the broadcasting sector
- Service classification to be offered
- Proposed program content
- Brief technical proposal including location of studio, transmitters, etc

Expressions of Interest should be submitted to the Authority no later than Friday 25<sup>h</sup> May 2007

Please note the following:

- This exercise is simply to collect information which would inform the Authority's study.
- This invitation must NOT be interpreted as a Request for Proposals
- Concessions for "Free to Air" Television Broadcasting Services will NOT be recommended from this exercise.
